Opening Hymn

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch; like me!

I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,

And grace my fears relieved;

How precious did that grace appear

The hour I first believed!

The Lord hath promised good to me,

His word my hope secures;

He will my shield and portion be

As long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years,

Bright shining as the sun,

We've no less days to sing God's praise

Than when we first begun.

Bible Reading

John 3:16-18

¹⁶ For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

¹⁷ For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

¹⁸ Whoever believes in him is not condemned,

but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son

Hymn

Trust and Obey

When we walk with the Lord. In the light of His Word,
What a glory He sheds on our way; While we do His good will,
He abides with us still, and with all who will trust and obey.

Trust and obey, for there's no other way

To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.

Not a shadow can rise, not a cloud in the skies,

But His smile quickly drives it away; Not a doubt or a fear,

Not a sigh or a tear, can abide while we trust and obey.

Not a burden we bear, not a sorrow we share,

But our toil He doth richly repay; Not a grief or a loss,

Not a frown or a cross, but is blest if we trust and obey.

But we never can prove the delights of His love,

Until all on the altar we lay; For the Favor, He shows,

And the joy He bestows, are for them who will trust and obey.

Then in fellowship sweet, We will sit at His feet,

Or we'll walk by His side in the way; What He says we will do;

Where He sends, we will go, never fear, only trust and obey.
